CSN Houston - [Full Article]

Texans WR DeAndre Hopkins suffered a concussion during a car accident in college. More recently, he was slow to recover from a concussion suffered in the preseason, but has been cleared to play.

Fantasy Impact:

It isn't time to hit the panic button with Hopkins, but it's good to know a player's history when pulling the trigger on draft day. He's a high-upside WR4, but does not come without baggage.
